

Message from Mrs Moore

I would like to wish everyone an enjoyable and safe half term break and Bank Holiday, let's hope that the weather improves and we finally get to see the sun again!

We are back to school again on Monday 7th June ready for the final half term of this academic year. We have lots of activities planned so keep checking our Facebook page and school website for updates.

I would like to thank everyone for their continued commitment in following social distancing guidance, helping to keep our school a safe environment.

As a school we are committed to honouring our contact tracing commitments and I would like to clarify how we will manage this commitment during the half term break. In the case of a positive test, please follow the guidance below:
