

Curriculum Map Spring 1 2026 EYFS Theme: Beware of The Bears

Key Texts	Starting Reception – Developing Independence and Communication.	Personal, Social, Emotional Development	Physical Development
  Focus Author: Michael Rosen.	 Building relationships and communicating Key areas: Practising sharing and taking turns with toys. Singing along with songs and nursery rhymes Talking happily to others about activities, experiences and the world around them	 Learn about healthy screen times. E-safety.  Sharing a story in our library.	Fine-Motor: Using stencils, scissors and tools with dough, knives and forks at mealtimes. Pencils for letter formation. Gross Motor: PE lessons start, children will need PE uniform see school website/Tapestry for details. Children will need to wear their PE kit every Monday.
Understanding of the World	Expressive Art and Design	Phonics and Reading	Mathematical Development
 Walk to the local area. Learning about animal habitats. Caves and the stone age.	Landscapes linked to the environment. Collage with natural objects. Exploring colour. Music- Explore rhythm and pattern. Role-play- Caves, shelters and looking after animals.	Daily set 1 sounds. Fred talk , read the word reading with our friend Fred the Frog. Fred Talk  Sharing story books, looking at pictures and talking about the characters.	Number bonds to 5 Measures, mass, capacity. Patterns Growing 6,7,& 8 Developing problem solving through daily challenges in the continuous provision.
